I. WE GATHER AND PREPARE

MEDITATION VERSES

When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:36

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.
And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Matthew 28:18b–20

PREPARATION PRAYER

Great and loving God,
we come before you emptied of all that would distract,
seeking all that would redeem.
In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

PRELUDE The Compassion Hymn

Words and Music: Keith Getty, Kristyn Getty, and Stuart Townend © 2008 Thankyou Music

GREETING

L: To all God's holy people in Christ Jesus, grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

P: And also with you.

Traditional Service

OPENING PRAYER *

Loving God, we have gathered to meet you.
We have come to listen to you,
to seek you, to worship you.

You are here and everywhere,
around us and within us; you know our inmost thoughts.
In you we hope, in you we live.

Loving God, we live in you; we worship you.
Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP *

based on Psalm 86:5, 8-10; 96:3-4

L: You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

P: Among the gods there is none like you, Lord;
no deeds can compare with yours.

L: All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord;
they will bring glory to your name.

P: For you are great and do marvelous deeds;
you alone are God.

L: Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

P: For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
he is to be feared above all gods.

OPENING HYMN * O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

UMH 57

Words and Music: Charles Wesley, 1739; Music: Carl G. Gläser; arr. by Lowell Mason, 1839

CALL TO CONFESSION

L: In spite of God's love for us and gift of love to us, we often act in destructive and hateful ways.
We close our hearts to God and disobey God's law.

[SILENT CONFESSION]

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Awesome and compassionate God,
you have loved us with unfailing, self-giving mercy;
but we have not loved you.

You constantly call us, but we do not listen.

You ask us to love, but we walk away from neighbors in need, wrapped in our own concerns.

You have called us to be the church, to continue the mission of Jesus Christ to our lonely and confused world.

Yet we acknowledge we are more apathetic than active, isolated than involved, callous than compassionate, obstinate than obedient, legalistic than loving.

Gracious Lord, have mercy upon us and forgive our sins.
Remove the obstacles preventing us from being your representatives to a broken world.

Awaken our hearts to the promised gift of your indwelling Spirit.
This we pray in Jesus' powerful name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: While it is true that we have sinned, it is a greater truth that we are forgiven through God's love in Jesus Christ.
To all who humbly seek the mercy of God,
we know in Jesus Christ our sin is forgiven.

P: Thanks be to God!

SONGS OF THE QUARTER

I Believe

CCLI # 7218424

Chris Davenport, Jonathan Smith, and Phil Wickham

I Believe is a joyful proclamation of our faith in who Jesus is, our gratitude for all He has done for us and our steadfast anticipation for His return. May this song simultaneously underscore and celebrate what we know is true, and just as the bridge emphasises: may we never be ashamed of the gospel of Christ as it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes! (Romans 1:16 NIV)

When My Heart Is Torn Asunder

CCLI # 7003127

Phil Wickham

When My Heart Is Torn Asunder touches on how Christ is our hope, comfort, and joy, even through the dark times we might encounter in our lives. May the song be an encouragement to those who are suffering and may we look to the cross as our Hope and Comfort always.

Christ Our Hope In Life And Death

CCLI # 7147502

Jordan Kauflin, Keith Getty, Matt Boswell, Matt Papa and Matthew Merker

Christ Our Hope In Life And Death is a modern hymn that expresses the comfort and assurance that come from trusting in Christ, who has conquered death and guaranteed our future by his resurrection. May our hope in the resurrection spur us to sing!

Passing On A Godly Heritage | Rev Raymond Fong

Psalm 78:1-8

Summary | This Next Generation Weekend, we look at how to pass on Godly heritage from generation to generation.

A. Essence of Godly Heritage

1. Character of God: we tell of God's goodness and faithfulness. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob is a God of generations of steadfast love and goodness. The Lord is both good and powerful. He uses His power for His goodness and our good.
2. Deeds of God: the deeds of the Lord are praiseworthy and wondrous (Psalm 78:4). He has first loved us and reached out to redeem us. He has worked in the past, He is working in the present, and will always work in the future. We have hope in the works of God. We know that God will help us to reach out to Him.
3. Community of God: it takes a village to sustain a heritage. Israel was a community forged through time to pass on heritage, a people that passed on heritage through rituals, festivals, and Godly rhythms. We must let the next generation know that we never journey alone, but we watch over each other in love and we need each other to worship the Lord together.

B. Significance of Godly Heritage

1. God's priority: Godly heritage must point to God's priority in our lives. We cannot leave behind a heritage if we have nothing to begin with. Discipling the next generation starts with our own relationship with God. We must put God first in our lives and seek first His kingdom and His righteousness (Matthew 6:33).
2. God's design: Godly heritage must point to God's design and not the world's desire. God's laws (v5) reflect His design for creation, and for His people to show unconditional sacrificial love as He has first done for us.
3. God's relevance: the next generation struggles with the perception that God is no longer relevant. They face worldly distraction, negative influence, secularised society, and rejection of spirituality. But the truth is that the human condition has not changed. Even though cultural expression has changed, our need for identity, significance and purpose are the same. We have an unchanging God for our unchanging needs. God gives us the identity, significance and purpose that we long for.

C. Method of Godly Heritage

1. Tell: tell stories of an everyday God. We 'show' and 'tell' our discipleship with intentionality and authenticity. Israel had rituals, festivals, and rhythms to remember what the Lord had done. Likewise, our God is connected to our everyday moments, and we can experience His presence in our daily life. We can teach the next generation how God inspires us to forgive and show kindness, gives us strength for struggle or lessons for a season.
2. Show: be a Godly role model. More is caught than taught. We can show the life of discipleship through regular routines, Godly marriage, and transforming habits. Character is formed through habit, habits reinforce values, and values form character.

D. Hope for Godly Heritage

The hope for Godly heritage is that the next generation will put their trust in God, will love Him and keep His commands (v7-8). We hope that the next generation will be faithful to God and will not be stubborn and rebellious like their ancestors. Despite the imperfections of God's people, dysfunction in the family, and inadequacies of the church, and we can hope for new possibilities and transformation in Christ.

Even with our best efforts, we are not responsible for the choices of the next generation. God Himself is the Father to the next generation. All we need to do is be faithful. Godly heritage is passed on in faith, not because there is a guarantee of outcome but because God alone is worthy.

Generations Discipleship | Rev Benjamin Lau

Psalm 78:1-8

Summary I "Let each generation tell its children of Your mighty acts; let them proclaim Your power." Psalm 145:4 (NLT)

We, as a church at Wesley, have a sacred responsibility to bear witness and reinforce collective memory of God's almighty acts and faithfulness; warn every generation against repeating past sinful mistakes. Active partnership with leaders of the NextGen Ministry, comprising Wesley Children's Ministry (CM), Tweens-Anchored-in-Christ (Between), and Youth Ministry (YM), ensures that our youth are safe-guarded by God's Word to become an integral part of the church family.

Three-fold Considerations for Purposeful Partnership

There is real and urgent need to nurture the spiritual wellbeing of our youths (age 0-23 years) who are here to worship God intergenerationally.

1. Challenges in the world today – As busy people living in an increasingly secularised society with complex polarised world views, our young ones face countless distractions and temptations cajoling them away from their faith.

They are "exposed to information, interactions, and behaviours they do not have the maturity for... which can affect them profoundly as they grow up." (Facebook posts of Ministers Ong Ye Kung and Masagos Zulkifli, 21 June 2024) Even as government initiatives emerge to "shape the habit" of electronic device usage and social media to "help our young use them properly – to enhance their lives, and not inadvertently undermine their mental wellness", we as Christlike parents, grandparents and mentors ought to heed God's warning in Judges 2:10-12 to prevent a new generation from growing up not knowing Him or "doing evil in the eyes of the LORD." We need to hand the baton of faith to the next generation well; remembering that for almost 140 years of our church history, God has faithfully raised many leaders and members who have sacrificially loved and served Him.

2. Role of the church – God's plan for His people has always been generational. Believing that young people can build a strong world-class church, the Heart of God Church, founded in 1999, aims to reach many generations beyond 'my' or 'the next'. With a pipeline of leaders and church builders engaged in a cyclical culture of evangelism and discipleship – they reach out, recruit, refine, release, and repeat the process continually. Intergenerational discipleship at Wesley is not about the young replacing their elders, but giving youths opportunity to reinforce the faithful practices of the older generations before them.

3. Discipleship lessons – Practical ways that lead the next generation to know God:

- i. Be faithful storytellers – not hide but tell of God's praiseworthy deeds (v4) as we journey faithfully to encourage one another as people of God, whose stories proclaim God's glory.
- ii. Be godly role models – Christian values are caught more than taught. So let us walk our talk with acts that reflect the values and teachings of Jesus Christ in our homes every day of the week – through prayer, Bible study, and in our interactions and care for others.
- iii. Trust the young, honour one's elders – Cultivating a culture of trust and honour with respect for each other's insights and experiences creates a safe and welcoming bridge between generations who know they are being heard. Communication breakdowns are overcome when young and old "speak to be understood, and listen to understand". Effectively passing a baton to hands ready and willing to receive ensures a multi-generational approach to building faithful discipleship in the church.
- iv. Pray for the next generation – to have personal encounters with Jesus as LORD and Saviour, be more involved in the life of the church, dedicate their lives to love, trust and serve God; for the NextGen communities to be vibrant spaces for our youths to connect and fulfil God's plans and purposes for them.
- v. Invest in the next generation – volunteer to serve with any of the age groups: 18mos -10 years (CM), 11-14 years (Between), 15-23 years (YM). To achieve a ratio smaller than the current 1:30, more mentors are needed in YM to facilitate meaningful discussions with our youths around God's Word – a highly rewarding high calling that sees victorious transformation of our young.

Pass on God-glorifying stories from our elders so that each generation will "set its hope anew on God". Tell them to the next generation to know and teach their own children so that none shall "refuse to give their heart to God", but joyfully learn to obey His commands. (v7-8)

WESLEY 40 DAYS OF PRAYER & FASTING

40.DAYS
40.VOICES
40.PRAYERS

1 Jul - 9 Aug 2024

the time is now!

40.Day season of prayer will feature 40 pastors and leaders of the Singapore church who will share their hearts, voices and prayers for our churches, presented to all, in a fresh digital format.

3 strategic thrusts are:

• Turning Singapore Godward • Winning the Youth • Blessing the Nations

The three strategic thrusts from God to the Singapore Church are spiritual in nature.

"No amount of human effort alone can produce an ounce of spiritual fruit," said Pastor Jeff Chong, Chairman of LoveSingapore.

As St Augustine reminded us: "Without God, we cannot; without us, God will not."

Videos will be posted daily. English videos will be dubbed into Chinese, online articles will be in three versions: English, Chinese and a family-friendly version.

We will kick off 40.Days of Prayer with a fast on Tuesday 2, 9, 16, 23, July from 9pm and breaking fast.....

...If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NIV)

Together, we will seek the Lord with one heart, one soul, one mind, one purpose, to repent through prayer and fasting, and in obedience return to God seeking first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Wesley 40 DAYS OF PRAYER & FASTING

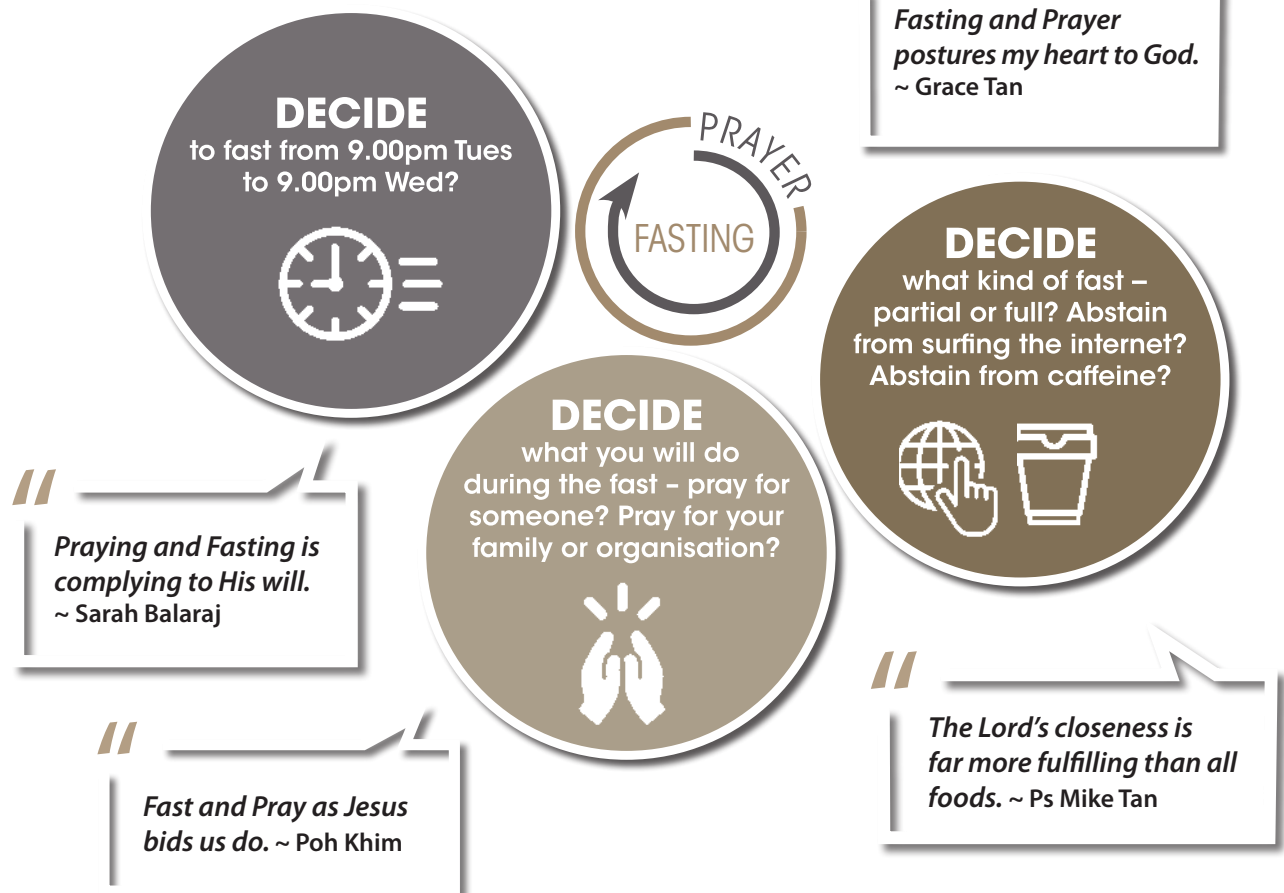

In the Methodist tradition, praying and fasting are traditions of the church that have been handed down through the ages from our Christian forebears. Fasting once a week was encouraged by John Wesley as a way through which we might receive God's grace, spurring us on towards the heart of Christian faith: loving God and our neighbour.

IFAST

As a church, let us pray and fast in such a time as this. Begin our fast on:

- Tuesday evenings (2, 9, 16, 23 July) after 9pm. We will break fast after the Wesley Prayer Service on Wednesdays.
- On Friday evening (2 August), let us also fast after 9pm, breaking fast after the Wesley Day of Prayer on Saturday at 12pm.

Some Reflections from Wesley Prayer Intercessors

Let any hunger pangs be a prompting to pray, to give thanks or to feed on God's Word.

Blooming and Blossoming in Community

With a prosperous career, a loving marriage and a close-knit family, Emily Lai was living a full and fulfilling life, and thought she had everything she needed. Little did she know that God had His own plans for her and was preparing her for His work and service in the latter half of her life.

In God's Time – 40 Years Later

God used the four-decade long season of waiting to equip and build up Loh Hoe Peng for the missions field, as He led him on a journey of obedience, learning, listening and watching. Hoe Peng said: "This journey changed my life from church building in Singapore to church planting in Bolivia, and from armchair missions to actually being in the mission field."

Zechariah

Zechariah (Hebrew: "God remembers") was a young priest/prophet, born in Babylon, who prophesied with the aging Haggai, to encourage the discouraged remnant who returned with Zerubbabel, to complete the rebuilding of the Temple. It had stopped for 15/16 years. (520 BC) The Temple was completed in 516 BC.

He brought hope by revealing God's future deliverance through a coming King (Messiah) who will rescue them and reign in peace, over all the Earth! (The "Revelation" of the Old Testament). He provided the most detailed description of the End Times, of the minor prophets. His book includes:

- A. National Messages for Rebuilding the Temple (Chapters 1-8):
 - a. Night Visions (8)
 - b. Words of Encouragement
- B. International Messages after Completion of the Temple (Chapters 9-14)

A. A Call to Return to the Lord:

"Return to me, and I will return to you," says the Lord Almighty.

1. The Man among the Myrtle Trees: He (angel) was on a red horse. Behind him were riders on red, brown and white horses. These reported, after patrolling the earth, that the whole world was at peace. The Lord Almighty said: My love for Jerusalem is passionate and strong. I was only a little angry with my people but the nations (now at peace) went too far with the punishment. My Temple will be rebuilt and Jerusalem will overflow with prosperity. God will comfort His people.
2. Four Horns and Four Craftsmen: The 4 horns were nations/world powers that scattered/oppressed Israel. The 4 craftsmen were nations used by God to punish the "horns"/Israel's enemies. (Eg: Assyria/Babylonia/Medo-Persia/Greece/Rome).
3. A Man with a Measuring Line: He was measuring the boundaries of Jerusalem which will one day be full of people, including people from many nations. God will Himself be a protective wall around them. Zechariah urged the remaining exiles to escape from Babylon, which will be destroyed. God said that whoever harms them, harms the "apple of his eye" (His most precious possession).
4. Clean Garments for the High Priest: Joshua, the High Priest, had his filthy clothes (sins) exchanged for clean clothes. If he obeyed God he would be in charge of God's house. God promised to bring the Branch (Messiah), who would offer Himself as the Perfect sacrifice, conferring His righteousness to every true believer, making them "priests". (1 Peter 2:9) Each person will sit under their own vine and fig tree (have their own place of security).
5. The Golden Lampstand and Two Olive Trees: Zerubbabel was reminded that it was only through God's Spirit, not by human strength/abilities, that the Temple would be completed. God will provide an inexhaustible amount of oil (Spirit) for His work. The 2 olive trees are the 2 "anointed ones" who serve God. (Possibly: Zerubbabel, Joshua).
6. The Flying Scroll: The scroll represents God's curse which will fall on everyone (individual) who steals or swears falsely/lies, indicating that all sins will be judged. God's people are expected to be honest and just.
7. The Woman in a Basket: She represents the wickedness/sins of the societies/nations. The wickedness will be brought to Babylonia (Shinar), the centre of world idolatry and evil, and banished from Israel. The 2 women with wind in their wings are responsible for effecting this transfer. (One day, all sins will be removed from the Earth).
8. Four Chariots: The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses, the third white and the fourth dappled horses. They were the 4 spirits of heaven who patrol the Earth, to do God's work. The angel with Zechariah explained that the black horses (went north) had executed God's punishment there. God is just and punishes sin. Repenting/turning from sin releases the mercy of God.

Words of Encouragement:

1. Zechariah was instructed to prepare a crown for Joshua, the High Priest. This foreshadows the combination of the 2 roles of King and High Priest, when Messiah/Branch returns at the Second Coming, to rule on His throne.
2. When asked if the people should continue their annual fasting. God questioned their attitudes. He said it was more important to administer True Justice, show Mercy and Compassion to one another. They should not oppress the vulnerable/weak (eg. widow, fatherless, orphans, foreigners and poor.)

Wesley WSCS

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. Prov 3:5-6 (NKJV)

3. God promised to bless Jerusalem. One day, God (Jesus) will rule His Kingdom, from Jerusalem. The streets will be filled with old men and women, and boys and girls at play. This indicates total peace and security. The fasts will become celebrations of Joy. Many peoples from around the world will come and seek the Lord! So, rebuild the Temple!

B. International Messages: The last 6 chapters are 2 messages delivered late in Zechariah's life. They point to Jesus/Messiah's 1st and 2nd Coming.

1. Judgment on Israel's Enemies: Those who oppress Israel will be crushed, but these promises are conditional upon Israel's obedience.
2. The Coming of Zion's King:
Zech 9:1-13: How God will help His people avoid war.
Zech 9:14-17: How God will help His people when war is inevitable.
*Your King will come, righteous and victorious, riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. (This was fulfilled at Jesus' Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem – predicted more than 500 years before the event.) (9:9)
3. Good and Evil Shepherds: The Lord will get rid of the evil shepherds (Zech 11) and care for Judah. (Zech 10) One day, He will gather/reunite the Jews and shepherd them.
*His 2nd Coming and His reign over all nations was predicted. (9:10)
*The Lord will save His people on that day as a shepherd saves His flock. (9:16).
4. In the final siege/battle (at Armageddon) when all the nations rise against Jerusalem, God will come to Jerusalem's defence and destroy them. (Zech 12)
5. All Israel will weep and mourn that they had killed the Messiah. The Spirit will be poured out to convict of sin and there will be spiritual revival. (Zech 12). There will be a fountain to cleanse Israel from sin, and false prophecies. One third (Remnant) will be refined by their difficult circumstances (fire). (Zech 13).
6. The Lord will come and reign over the Earth. His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives which will split into North and South segments, and Jerusalem will be raised, above the surrounding mountains. Living water will flow from it, eastward to the Dead Sea and westwards to the Mediterranean Sea. All the nations will go to Jerusalem to worship God. (What encouraging news for the discouraged builders!). (Zech 14).
NB: Even in discouragement, remember that God is working out His Plan.
God knows, protects, guides us and controls the Future: Trust Him.

- Q1. Will you trust and follow Him, no matter what challenges you are facing?
- Q2. Are you putting your trust in idols (eg. money, power, fame, relationships, success) for your happiness and security?
- Q3. Are you faithfully reading God's Word, obeying His true teaching and helping others to turn to God/be faithful to Him?

Food For Reflection:

“Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,”
says the Lord of Heaven's Armies.

Lessons from the Book of Ezra

The Book of Ezra is a historical record of the Return of the Jews (in three groups) from Babylonian exile after:

1. the 70-years' captivity (as prophesied by Jeremiah), and
2. the Persian King Cyrus' decree (as prophesied by Isaiah).
 - Zerubbabel led the first group. They completed the Temple after encouragement by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah.
 - Ezra led the second group. With strong support from King Artaxerxes, he returned with a number of Levitical priests, and helped to bring spiritual revival.
 - Nehemiah led the third group. He rebuilt Jerusalem's walls.

(We begin our study of Nehemiah from Sat 10 Aug 2024 at 2.30pm.)

The WSCS Bible Study (Sat) Group “meets” on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of the month.

We study Holy Scripture to know God better, and gain a better understanding of His work in the world and His ways. In the process, we encourage one another along our personal pilgrimage.

We welcome ladies of all ages! (online)

St Paul Methodist School (Timor Leste) Laptop Donation Drive

St Paul Methodist School (SPMS) in Timor-Leste is looking for new or pre-loved laptops to facilitate teaching and build IT literacy for students. Currently the teacher-student ratio is high. Therefore, lessons using digital content will be a force-multiplier especially at classes where teacher numbers are limited.

The donated laptops will also help Timorese students build digital skills, ultimately helping with the country's development as they connect with the rest of the world for trade and knowledge.

We accept laptops of any age, as long as these conditions are met:

- a. Physical components (LCD screen, laptop panels, keyboards) are not broken
- b. Laptops with battery issues but can still be powered on if plugged to power supply

We do not accept tablets or handheld devices, as these require high speed internet which is not readily available at SPMS.

We hope to collect a total of 50 devices by end-2024.

Please get in touch with Chilin Tang chilintang@hotmail.com or +65 9457 4607 to find out more!
Thank you!

Annual Fundraiser 2024

25 October 2024 | Friday | Orchid Country Club

Transform – one story at a time. This is our vision at Salt&Light.

Since its launch in 2018, Salt&Light – part of the Thirst Collective Ltd, a Christian non-profit initiative – has published around 3,500 stories to inspire journeys of faith and good works at home, at work, in the community, and out to the nations.

We invite you to be part of this faith journey as we build on this God-given platform.

We hope you will consider being partners with us by buying golf flights/packages and/or dinner. We also welcome contributions in cash or kind.

Details are available on the QR code or link on the next page.

The proceeds from this fundraising event will go toward publishing testimonies of hope and lives changed, and strengthening our impact through encouraging and equipping like-minded believers.

I look forward to our partnership with you in transforming Singapore and the nations, one story at a time.

Grace be with you!
