I. WE GATHER AND PREPARE

MEDITATION VERSES

Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance.
Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.
James 1:2–4

Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him.
James 1:12

ORGAN PRELUDE

GREETING

L: May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

P: And also with you.

OPENING PRAYER

L: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open
and all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:

All: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, through the various segments of the service today,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP *

L: Our help is in the name of the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.

The Lord is gracious and righteous;

P: our God is full of compassion.

L: The Lord protects the unwary;
when we were brought low, he saved us.

P: Return to your rest, my soul,
for the Lord has been good to you.

L: What shall we return to the Lord for all his goodness to us?

P: We will sacrifice a thank offering and call on the name of the Lord.
We will fulfil our vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

All: Praise the LORD!

OPENING HYMN * O God Beyond All Praising

Words: Michael Perry (1942 – 1996) © 1982 Hope Publishing Co.

Tune (THAXTED): Gustav T. Holst (1874-1934)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sFtgaBVKBic> [Arr. Skinner]

1 O God beyond all praising we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay;
for we can only wonder at every gift you send,
at blessings without number and mercies without end:
we lift our hearts before you and wait upon your Word,
we honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord!

2 Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, that we who know your favor may serve you as our King;
and whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, we'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still:
to marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION *

O God beyond all praising, forgive us when we minimize your greatness and power and forget that you are the Creator of all creation and the Ruler of our lives.

Forgive us, O Lord. [Silence]

Jesus, you have shown us the way of life.
Yet, often times we are slow to learn from you and to follow you in your suffering, by our reluctance to bear our own cross.

Forgive us, O Lord. [Silence]

Help us to know you deeper,
to know the power of your resurrection and participation in your suffering, becoming like you in your death,
and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

When we have afflicted others, whether by our own power or by our silent support of systems that oppress, enslave, and crush,

Forgive us, O Lord. [Silence]

ASSURANCE OF PARDON *

L: The God who challenges us is also the God who encourages us.
The God who confronts us
is also the God who accepts us.
Be assured that God is with us even now, accepting, guiding, and forgiving.

P: Thanks be to God.

SONGS OF THE QUARTER*His Glory And My Good

CCLI # 7235691
 Ben Fielding, Jonny Robinson, and Rich Thompson

This beautiful new release from CityAight speaks about the truth that as Christians, we can pursue the glorification of God with full devotion, understanding that this is the very path that brings us eternal joy.

Inhabit

CCLI # 7215704
 Austin Johnson, David Funk, and Emmy Rose

"Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and He will dwell with them. They will be His people, and God himself will be with them and be their God." – Revelations 21:3

Inhabit is a song and a prayer. We are asking the Lord to breakdown selfish desires, our wandering tendencies and to align ourselves to His will and plans for us. May our worship and offering of our lives not be shallow, conditional and self-seeking, but instead wholly set apart for His plans and purposes. This is what it means for us to be a dwelling place for the Lord, a sacrifice, a living offering, and a temple consecrated for the King.

Behold The Lamb

CCLI # 7122996
 Jordan Kauflin, Keith Getty, Matt Boswell, Matt Papa and Matthew Merker

Behold the Lamb by Passion is a powerful worship song that focuses on the sacrificial love of Jesus Christ. It draws inspiration from the biblical imagery of Jesus as the Lamb of God, who willingly gave His life for the salvation of humanity. The song expresses gratitude and awe at the incredible sacrifice Jesus made, and it serves as a reminder of the hope and forgiveness He offers.

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" – John 1:29

Praise You Anywhere

CCLI # 7219772
 Ben Fielding, Brandon Lake, Hank Bentley, and Jacob Sooter

As life takes us in and out of different seasons, the song Praise You Anywhere celebrates the ability to offer praise to God in any situation, regardless of the circumstances or location. The Gospel of John tells us that the time has now come when worship will no longer be confined to a specific place (John 4:21); rather, we can now embrace worship as a continuous and integral part of our lives, not limited by time or space. Praise is a powerful weapon when we face the storms and valleys of life. Verse 3 of this song mentions the time when the Apostle Paul and Silas used praise to free themselves from prison (Acts 16:25).

Praise helps change our perspective, reminding us to trust that there is freedom in the name of Christ and that He is worthy of our highest praise in every situation. Be encouraged today as you hear this song, to bring Praise everywhere you go!

The Case For Holiness

Rev Alvin Chan | Isaiah 6:1-8

Summary | This TRAC Sunday, Rev Alvin Chan from Trinity Methodist Church brings us the Word of God concerning discipleship in the marketplace. As we reflect on our spiritual transformation into witnesses for Jesus, we observe how the Prophet Isaiah received his call to represent God to the nations. Being God's representatives requires more than just willingness and surrender. If we only rely on our willpower and strength, we will be exhausted, or else go astray doing life our own way as our sinful nature directs. Today's Scripture text teaches us the centrality of God's holiness to empower us for ministry.

Discipleship in the marketplace must be driven by the clarity of Who is calling us. (v8)

We do good works because it is God's mandate. Isaiah responded emphatically with, "Here I am! Send me" because he knew the God who called him. Likewise, Jesus our High Priest sends us to represent Him to the world (John 17:18, John 20:21).

When we do good works, we must always be mindful of Who we are representing. We cannot do it by our own strength and understanding. We must continually behold Jesus, and thereby be transformed like Him. We must never neglect seeking God and fixing our eyes on Him.

Discipleship in the marketplace must be fuelled by an accurate picture of who God is. (v1-4)

A key theme in the book of Isaiah is God's holiness. Isaiah saw the holiness of God on His Throne (v1). God was attended by the Seraphim (v2), who continually worshipped His Holiness (v3). The smoke which filled the temple (v4) represents God's Holy presence and approval of the place. Later in Isaiah 55:8-9, we read that His ways are higher than our ways, and His thoughts than our thoughts. We perceive that God is unique, creative, life-giving, wise, and loving, with a special and good redemptive purpose for all that He does.

As Jesus' followers, we are called to be set apart from mainstream culture. God often wants us to do something countercultural, which goes against conventional human wisdom (Jeremiah 29:4-9). Therefore, we must keep in step with God to fuel our ministry. We encounter God through prayer, the Word, and small groups.

If we do not look to God, we will do things by our own strength and wisdom. When the work becomes tiring and we don't see results, we easily feel discouraged. Then we may prefer our own way to God's way, and our purpose diverges from God's purpose. The only way to discern what God desires is to humbly keep close to Him.

Discipleship in the marketplace must be sustained by a divine anointing. (v5-7)

Isaiah recognised the full extent of his sin and despaired (v5). Compared to the perfection of God's goodness, Isaiah felt undeserving, helpless, limited, and unprepared for his call. In a posture of surrender, Isaiah humbly confessed his weakness. God immediately sent the remedy through the burning coal (v6-7). It symbolises the removal of guilt through the forgiveness of sin. The assurance of pardon allows Isaiah to become like God through humble dependence and obedience. This atonement reminds us of the work of Christ: while we were yet sinners, Jesus was already willing and ready to forgive and cleanse us!

Holiness is needed in ministry. As ambassadors of God, we are called to take God's perspective and act like He would. We are called to pursue peace and holiness (Hebrews 12:14). We are called to have clean hands and a pure heart, to not lift up our souls to what is false, and to seek God's face (Psalm 24:3-6). How can we do this? Only when we humbly recognise our need for God, and the importance of doing life in God's way. Then only do we humbly trust Him with all our might and experience His provision of strength and wisdom for our work.

Who, Not What
 Rev Chan Siew Chye | Philippians 4:10-20

Summary | Life often robs us of joy – whether it’s the post-weekend slump, daily struggles, or difficult people. Challenges can quickly drain our energy and steal our joy. But the Apostle Paul teaches us that true joy and contentment are possible in all circumstances. In Philippians 4:4, Paul writes, “Rejoice in the Lord always.” This command to rejoice, regardless of our situation, challenges us to stop letting circumstances control our emotions. Paul shows us that joy and contentment come when our focus is on Christ, not on what’s happening around us.

1. Contentment: Not Self-Sufficiency, But Christ-Sufficiency

Paul, despite imprisonment and persecution, discovered contentment in Christ’s sufficiency. In Philippians 4:13, Paul writes, “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.” While often used to inspire overcoming challenges, the real focus of this verse is Christ’s ability to strengthen us, not our own self-reliance.

In a world that values independence, Paul teaches that true contentment isn’t about self-sufficiency, wealth, or controlling circumstances. It comes from trusting that Christ is enough. Even in hardship, Paul had peace because he knew Christ would provide everything he needed. Paul’s contentment wasn’t about accumulating wealth or mastering circumstances but about depending on Christ’s power. When we shift our focus from what we have to who Christ is, we find lasting joy and peace that aren’t dependent on life’s ups and downs.

2. Contentment: Not Detachment, But Attachment to Christ

Pastor Darrell Johnson notes that the Stoics during Paul’s time believed contentment comes from detachment – withdrawing emotionally from desires, relationships, and external circumstances. They taught that happiness is found through indifference to the world. Paul, however, teaches that true contentment is found in attachment to Christ.

In Philippians 4:12, Paul says he has learned to be content whether in abundance or need, because his joy is based on his relationship with Jesus, not his circumstances. Unlike the Stoics, Paul teaches that contentment is not about detaching from life but attaching more deeply to Christ. When life gets difficult, we are called not to detach but to draw closer to Jesus. His presence, love, and power bring us peace and joy that are unaffected by external events. Our attachment to Christ gives us unshakable joy, no matter what’s going on around us.

3. Contentment: Key to Cultivating Caring Relationships

Contentment in Christ is also key to building genuine, caring relationships. In Philippians 4:10-11, Paul expresses joy not just because the Philippians met his needs but because their generosity reflected their genuine love for him. Their support was motivated by care, not obligation. When we are content in Christ, we are free to engage in selfless relationships. We no longer approach relationships with a mindset of “What can I get from this person?” but, “How can I love and serve them?” True contentment in Christ enables us to give without expecting anything in return, fostering relationships marked by generosity, selflessness, and concern for others’ well-being.

Paul’s relationship with the Philippians exemplifies this. They gave to him not out of duty, but because they cared deeply for him and his ministry. Their joy came not from receiving something in return, but from seeing Paul succeed in his calling. This selfless generosity and love is the kind of joy God wants us to experience in our relationships.

The book “The Other Half of Church” by Jim Wilder and Michel Hendricks explores the neurological effects of joy. They explain that joy is more than an emotion—it’s something physically experienced in relationships. Joy happens when others show, through their face and eyes, that they are genuinely happy to be with us. This kind of joy, rooted in authentic connection, doesn’t depend on circumstances but on the quality of our relationships. As we find our contentment in Christ, we reflect His joy, building stronger, more loving communities.

Living Out Joy and Contentment

Paul’s teaching shows that contentment and joy are found in Christ, not in our circumstances. In Philippians 4:13, Paul learned to focus on Christ rather than his ever-changing circumstances. The key to contentment is who, not what. When we focus on Christ’s love, provision, and strength, we can experience lasting joy, regardless of life’s challenges.

Christ is the source of our contentment, joy, and strength. The more we attach ourselves to Him, the more our joy will flow from a deep, abiding connection with our Saviour. True contentment leads to selfless relationships, where joy is shared not for personal gain but out of love for Christ and others.

A's In The Test Of Life

Rev Benjamin Lau | James 1:2-8,12

Reflection Questions

1. How do you usually respond to challenges, and how can we cultivate a joyful attitude instead?
2. According to James, what purpose do trials serve in our lives? Think of a recent time of testing in your life. What do you think God might be trying to teach you through it?
3. Why is it important to seek God's wisdom specifically in times of trial? In what ways can God's wisdom guide us differently than our own understanding in difficult situations?
4. What are some practical ways we can align our hearts with faith, even when we're feeling unsure or fearful?
5. How does the promise of anticipating God's reward motivate you to stay strong in your faith?

Two storms in life hit Vivien. Her mother's death left her to be caregiver to her father who had dementia. She took this on while holding a national role, teaching music to students and running the household. Later, she was diagnosed with cancer. She weathered both storms, testifying to God's strong foundation laid in her life and to His abiding presence.

Playing the trumpet 60 years ago saw him serving in the Brass and Wind Ensembles in church – and winning souls. Responding to a call to go beyond the church saw him as a litigator who helped start community hospitals and eldercare centres. More recently, he is actively promoting healthy and graceful aging from his own strenuous exercise regime.

EMOTIONALLY HEALTHY SPIRITUALITY COURSE

(by Peter & Geri Scazzero)

It's Impossible To Be Spiritually Mature, While Remaining Emotionally Immature

In this bestselling book, Peter Scazzero outlines a roadmap for discipleship with Jesus that is powerfully transformative. He unveils what's wrong with our current definition of "spiritual growth" and offers not only a model of spirituality that actually works, but seven steps to change that will help you experience authentic faith and hunger for God.

Peter Scazzero learned the hard way: you can't be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature. Even though he was the pastor of a growing church, he did what most people do: avoiding conflict, ignore his anger, sadness and fear, use God to run from God.

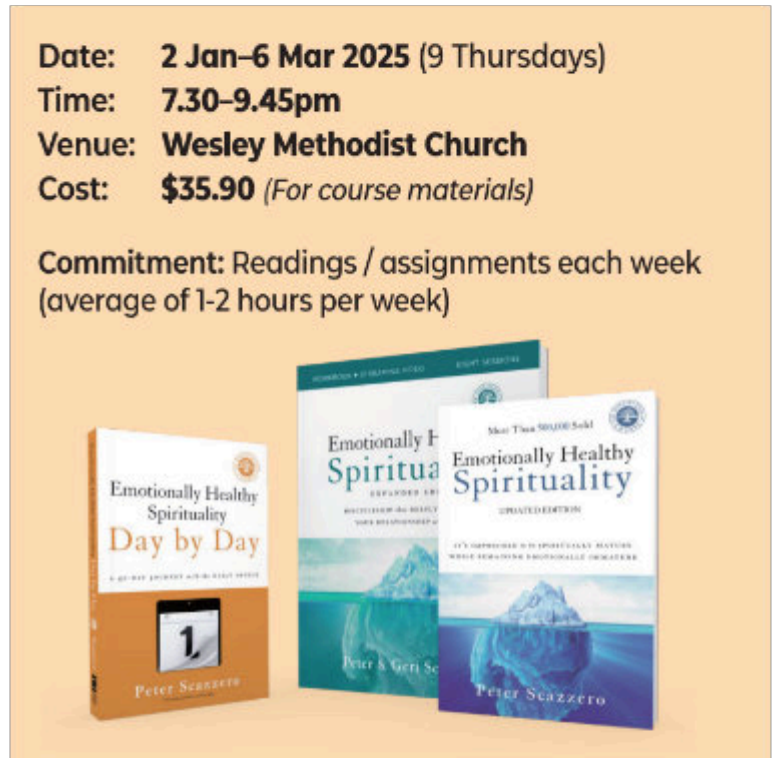

Eventually God awakened him to a biblical integration of emotional health and the spiritual practice of slowing down and quieting your life for to experience a first-hand relationship with Jesus. It created nothing short of a spiritual revolution in Scazzero, in his church, and now in thousands of other churches.

The Emotionally Healthy Spirituality Course will begin on 2 January 2025 and is opened to anyone who desires to love like Jesus.

Our goal is simple: to lead you into a lived experience of the theology and culture of Emotionally Healthy Discipleship.

CHRISTIAN BELIEVER

Knowing God with Heart and Mind

- Have you ever found it challenging to explain your faith?

CHRISTIAN BELIEVER, a study of Christian doctrines, that is, what the church believes and teaches, may assist in deepening your understanding of the Christian faith.

The Christian Believer study

- ✦ focuses on classical teachings of the Christian faith, presenting and interpreting them in a way that participants can understand through the use of words, symbols and hymns
- ✦ draws on Scripture to receive what God has revealed
- ✦ read and study historical creeds, prayers, hymns and selected writings from several Christian authors like Augustine, Karl Barth, John Calvin, Martin Luther and John Wesley
- ✦ Your key texts are the Bible, Study Manual and Book of Readings (which comprises key statements of Christian writings from theologians and church council).

Requirements

- Although you will be reading Scripture, this is NOT strictly Bible Study. This is a study of biblical doctrines that requires a good understanding of the Bible.
- Eligible participants are expected to have graduated from a minimum of 3 DISCIPLE Bible Study phases.
- 32 Weekly Sessions via ZOOM
- Be prepared to commit at least 45 minutes each day, six days a week, for reading and studying, taking notes and prayer.
- Your key texts are the Bible, Study Manual and Book of Readings (which comprises key statements of Christian writings from theologians and church council).

Here are what some participants have said about this course:

I have enjoyed this course a lot as it is thought-provoking. Not only does it help me to be precise about what I believe, I also read about how doctrines were formed down the ages. This clarity is important especially in the end times, so that we are not confused or misled by false prophets. JOYCE SIA

It is a good course that helps me to reflect on some of the most basic Christian beliefs and doctrines. Journeying together with a group of faithful believers under the guidance of dedicated facilitators made the greatest impact in helping me clarify my beliefs as well as to complete the course. All their life experiences and testimonies made the application so much more real. GOH KHEAN CHYE

God and His Runaway Prophet (Lessons from Jonah)

Jonah (“dove”) son of Amittai, was from Gath-hepher, a town located two miles from Nazareth. He prophesied during the reign of King Jeroboam II, of the Northern Kingdom of Israel.

Jonah was a historical person mentioned by Jesus, who said that he would spend three days and three nights in the heart of the earth (during his death and resurrection), as Jonah did in the belly of the great fish. Jesus also believed in Nineveh’s conversion by Jonah’s preaching. (Matt 12:39-42)

Assyria was a brutal, ruthless enemy of Israel which eventually conquered Israel in 722BC.

The Book of Jonah is about:

- A) Jonah’s Commission and His Runaway Response (Jonah 1,2)
- B) Jonah’s Reluctant Fulfillment of His Mission and its Result (Jonah 3,4)

A. God called Jonah to the great city of Nineveh, which would soon be the capital of the Assyrian Empire, to warn them of his judgment for their wickedness. Instead, Jonah boarded a ship for Tarshish (southern Spain) in the opposite direction from Nineveh which was to the east. But God sent a great wind and whipped up a storm which threatened the lives of the sailors as well. They cried to their gods and cast lots which identified Jonah as the cause of their troubles. Jonah confessed that he was running away from the Lord. He told them to throw him overboard to calm the sea. The sailors sought forgiveness from Jonah’s God before they did so, and the sea was calmed! The sailors worshiped God and vowed to serve Him! Meanwhile, God provided a “great fish” (not necessarily a “whale”!) to swallow Jonah, keeping him inside for three days and three nights. Jonah prayed to God from inside the fish and the Lord commanded the fish to vomit Jonah onto dry land.

B. God reiterated his call to Jonah a second time, and Jonah obeyed this time. He proclaimed God’s warning: “40 days from now, Nineveh will be destroyed.” The Ninevites believed God and repented, from the greatest (including the king) to the least. Together with their animals, they fasted and put on sackcloth. They called on God and turned from their evil and violent ways. God saw their genuine repentance and decided not to destroy them. Jonah was angry that Israel’s cruel enemies were spared. He asked God to take his life. He made a shelter for himself and sat under it, outside the city, to see what would happen. God provided him a vine to give him shade and comfort. The next day, God provided a worm which chewed the vine and it withered. God then provided a scorching east wind, so Jonah was seated under the blazing sun, wishing for death. God chided him for being angry over the loss of the vine. God then told him that He was concerned for the great city of Nineveh, which had more than 120,000 infants who could not tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well.

NB:

1. God's Grace, Mercy and Salvation is offered to all peoples/nations and all Creation. (including the "least deserving"/"difficult" people in our homes/workplaces/church/society, people of other races, denominations, social status, backgrounds. . .).
2. God rules Sovereign over all Creation. He controls nature (eg winds, storms at sea, great fishes, plants, worms . . .)
3. God's role for Israel, is to be a blessing to the world/Gentile nations as well.
4. God's will and purposes will prevail.
5. God's people should obey His call, instructions and teaching when He reveals His will/commandments, whether general, through the Bible or specific to an individual.
6. God can use even the most unlikely situations, to bring salvation to repentant sinners. (eg. sailors, casting of lots to identify Jonah)
7. God sees, hears, knows, and is actively involved in world events and individual lives.
8. God hears our prayers – even from the most unlikely places! (eg. stomach of a fish)
9. God is patient and gives "second chances". (eg. Jonah)
10. God can make a fish swallow a man and spit him on dry land!

Q1: Are you as forgiving and merciful as your God? (Love God, seek Him and His Spirit's enabling.)

Q2: Are you obeying Him, with regards to His revealed will and commandments/teachings in the Bible?

Q3: Would you be willing to pray for and share the Good News with those who have offended you most?

Food For Reflection:

“When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, He had compassion and did not bring upon them the destruction he had threatened.”
